

Typing Tuesday

How to access typing.com at home

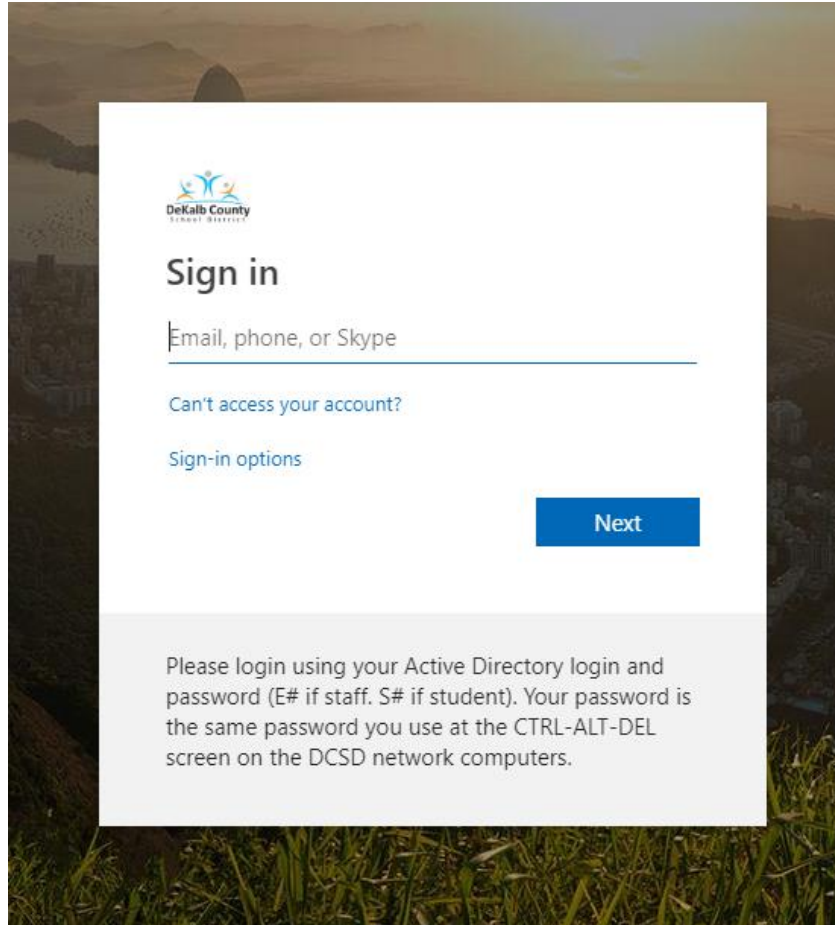

1. Search the internet for Dekalb County School District

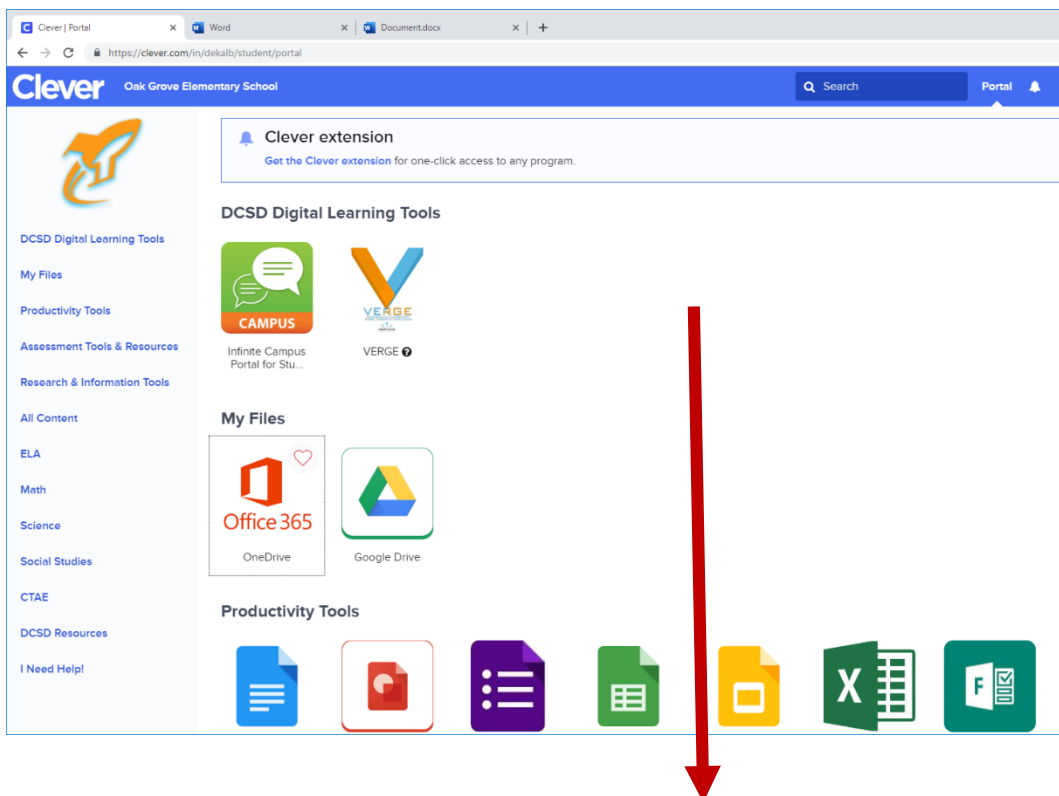

2. On the DCSD website, scroll down to the bottom to find LaunchPad. Double click.

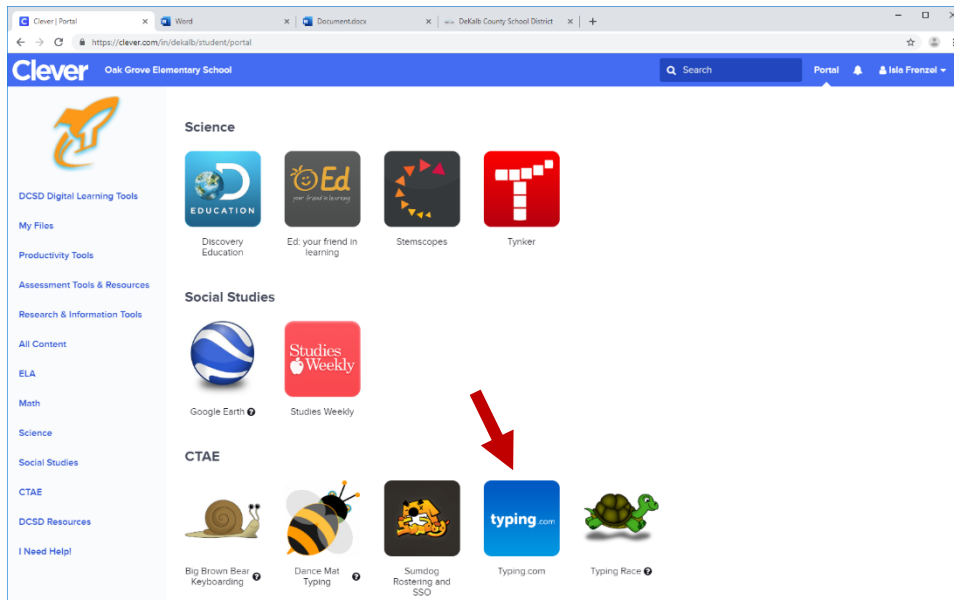

This launches Clever. At some point, you may need to enter either a username or email address. Username is the student number (or S number) Email would be the student number @dekalbschoolsga.org. Something like this:

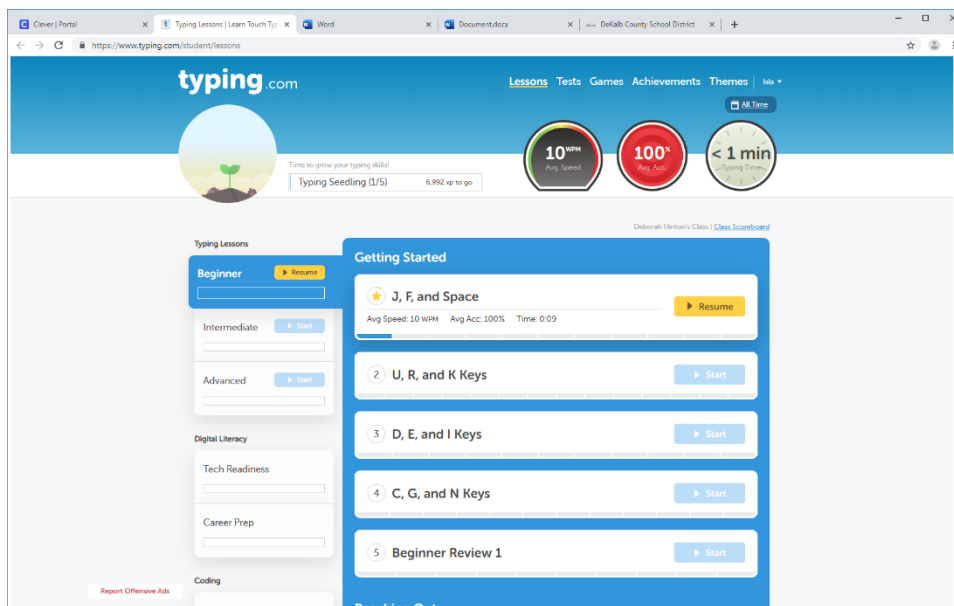

3. On the Clever page, scroll all the way down to typing.com

5. Click on typing.com

6. You should be logged in automatically and lessons of increasing difficulty are ready to go! Just click on the yellow “Start” or “Resume” button.

Type for 20-30 minutes every Tuesday! Happy typing!
